Good morning Mr. Madsen,

I am the examining attorney assigned to your trademark application for ISSUES, ETC. I need to make a slight amendment to the record in the "Entity" section. This section currently indicates that you are a sole proprietorship. If this is indeed the case, then the record must indicate the name national citizenship of the sole proprietor. The record currently has blanks in these sections.

Please let me know the name and national citizenship of the sole proprietor as soon as possible and I will enter it into the record.

Thank you,

Sean Crowley
Law Office 116

To Steve Crowley, Law Office 116

Thank you for your e-mail request.

The sole proprietor is Harry B. Madsen
His national citizenship is the United States

Harry B. Madsen was born a subject of the crown of the Kingdom of Denmark on 2-20-28; was an immigrant in arms in September of 1928; and as a minor became a naturalized derivative citizen with his parents in 1936.

I had recent occasion to get a replacement certificate of naturalization, to replace the lost one I acquired when I voluntarily enlisted in the U. S. Army in the 1940s, which was issued on March 25, 2008, as Certificate 1311867 which bears the language:

Was naturalized by the United States District Court in Chicago, Illinois on December 9, 1936

I will be glad to forward a photo copy of that certificate if you so desire. If so, please confirm the mailing address I should use.

Yours truly,

Harry B. Madsen
