INTROIT

Psalm 33:1, 18–20; antiphon: Psalm 33:5b, 6a

The earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD. Alleluia.

By the word of the LORD the heavens were made. Alleluia.

Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous!

Praise befits the upright.

Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him,

on those who hope in his steadfast love,

that he may deliver their soul from death

and keep them alive in famine.

Our soul waits for the LORD;

he is our help and our shield.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

The earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD. Alleluia.

By the word of the Lord the heavens were made. Alleluia.

COLLECT OF THE WEEK

O God, through the humiliation of Your Son You raised up the fallen world. Grant to Your faithful people, rescued from the peril of everlasting death, perpetual gladness and eternal joys; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW?

Misericordias Domini comes from the Latin translation of the first line of the introit (Misericordia Domini plena est terra), meaning “The earth is full of the tender mercy of the LORD.”

The word “pastor” comes from the Latin noun pastor which means “shepherd” and the verb pascere which means “to lead to pasture, set to grazing, cause to eat.”

Pastors are under-shepherds of Christ, they are instructed to feed (administer the Holy Sacraments) and preach the Gospel to their sheep (congregation) according to Christ’s example.
