Second Sunday after Trinity

2017

INTROIT

Psalm 18:1–2a, 27, 30a, 49; antiphon: Psalm 18:18b–19

The LORD was my support
in the day of my calamity.
 He brought me out into a broad place;
he rescued me, because he delighted in me.
 I love you, O LORD, my strength.
The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer.
 For you saved a humble people,
but the haughty eyes you bring down.
 This God—his way is perfect;
the word of the LORD proves true.
 For this I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations,
and sing to your name.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
 The LORD was my support
in the day of my calamity.
 He brought me out into a broad place;
he rescued me, because he delighted in me.

COLLECT OF THE WEEK

O Lord, since You never fail to help and govern those whom You nurture in Your steadfast fear and love, work in us a perpetual fear and love of Your holy name; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Verse 13 — Do not tell lies.

Verse 14 — Do not do evil (bad things), but help your neighbor and do what is right (good works) out of love.

Verses 13–14 focus on the Second Table of the Law (Commandments 4–10).

Do Christians have afflictions (distress or grief)? (verse 19)

Yes, Christians experience afflictions. The difference is that Christians have peace in the knowledge that God keeps His promise that we are saved by grace through faith in Christ.

The foolish person does not accept (rejects) teaching, and uses it as a reason to insult and abuse the teacher. The foolish person does not become wise, but more foolish.

What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not hurt or harm our neighbor in his body, but help and support him in every physical need.

CATECHISM CONNECTION

What is the connection of the Third Commandment with Explanation and Trinity II?

We should make partaking in the Lord's Supper and worship a priority and not make excuses for missing out.

The Third Commandment — Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy.

What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not despise preaching and His Word, but hold it sacred and gladly hear and learn it.
